Law omits ward residency requirement Citywide shopping for councilmen?

By Mike Myers
Staff writer

Residents admiring another ward's aldermen who have said, "I wish he (or she) could be our alderman" have had their wish granted, albeit unintentionally, by the state legislature.

Unless state law changes before the next municipal election, voters will be able to "shop" citywide for the person to represent their ward.

Because of an apparent clerical error, aldermen must still be elected by ward, but need not live in the ward that elects them.

It's a terrible idea," said Madison Mayor John Belcoff, adding that he planned to immediately call all area state legislators to make sure the law is changed before the next city election.

Legislature may reinstate rule

By Bob Slate
and Mike Myers
Staff writers

Aldermen are apparently no longer required to live in the wards they represent under an Illinois law that went into effect in May.

Theoretically, under the statute revision, every alderman in a given city could reside in the same block of town.

A routine 1992 Illinois public act designed to make the Illinois Municipal Code easier to use — by recodifying the eligibility requirements for municipal officers — removed the ward residency requirement. But two local city attorneys say it appears to be a clerical mistake.

A staff attorney for the Illinois Municipal League confirmed Friday that the "significant change" was a clerical error and said the mistake will likely be rectified before the next municipal election.

"As the law is written, we can assume that the ward residency requirement no longer exists," said Beth Janicki, staff attorney for the IML, after a reporter brought the change to her attention.

"This is a pretty substantive change and I'm really surprised that this question hasn't come up," Janicki said.

Leo Konzen, city attorney for Granite City, said (See RULE, Page 10A)

Nameoki boosts animal patrols

Nameoki Township has hired an animal control officer.

Steven Miskelly, who was recently hired as a part-time officer, will patrol the township area during evenings and on weekends, said Township Supervisor Ken Davis.

"There has been a noticed increase in animals running loose in our township," Davis said.

"Unsupervised animals are not only a violation of a Madison County ordinance, but are at times unsafe for our children and other citizens and for the animal itself," he said.

Persons who wish to report a stray animal during normal business hours (8 a.m.-4:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday and 8 a.m.-3:30 p.m. Friday) should call the township office at 931-1230.

At other times, persons should call Madison County Animal Control at 692-1701.

Miskelly will also be available for emergency call-out in bite cases, Davis said.

Davis said animals collected by Miskelly will be kept in holding cages at the township office, 4250 Highway 162. An attempt will be made to find the animal's owner.

If the owner cannot be found in two days, the animal will be taken to the county facility, Davis said.

"We used to have a full-time animal control officer, but the new board is wanting to be a little more cautious with spending and better utilize existing county services," Davis said.

Man charged in beating

What apparently began as a simple Wednesday "night out with the boys" for a 22-year-old Madison man turned into a two-and-a-half-hour nightmare of alleged physical and sexual abuse for the man's girlfriend.

Douglas A. Rodgers, of an apartment in the 400 block of Madison Avenue, has been charged with four counts of aggravated criminal sexual assault in connection with the alleged abuse.

Rodgers allegedly forced a 23-year-old woman to perform sex acts, attempted to rape her and used a broom handle to beat her, all against her will, according to a police report.

Madison police arrested Rodgers at his apartment at about 4:30 a.m. Thursday. He was being held Friday in the Madison County Jail in lieu of $250,000 bond.

"Rodgers and the victim were boyfriend and girlfriend. He just went off the deep end. He's obviously got some problems," Lt. Paul Bargiel of the Madison Police Department said.

APA offers 'purr-fect' holiday gift

In search of the perfect stocking stuffer?

"Look no further — the 1994 APA calendar is it," said Larry Judd of the Granite City Association for the Protection of Animals.

"We went with the pocket-calendar size this year because that's what most people want," he said. "It can go with you everywhere. It's only two and a half bucks and all the money goes to take care of our animals."

The 1994 APA calendar features the winners in the annual APA pet photo contest and may be purchased by calling the APA at 931-7030 between 9 a.m. and noon Monday through Saturday or 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Sundays.

The first place photo winner, receiving $25, was Angus, a dog owned by Chuck Cadell. Second place, receiving $15, went to Bridget, a dog owned by Harold Lone and third place, receiving $10, was Tag-A-Long, a cat owned by Betty Townsend.

The contest judge was Mary Sanchez, manager of the Pet Care store in St. Ann, Mo. Prizes were contributed by Gilk's Department Stores, Little Caesar Pizza, Shear Haven dog and cat grooming in Caseyville and anonymous cash donors.

The contest was organized by Sue Judd and the calendar was put together by Larry Judd.

Accident claims second victim

A second Granite City High School student is dead as a result of a three-car accident in Pontoon Beach more than a week ago.

Jessica Sealey, 15, a passenger in one of the cars, died Wednesday afternoon of injuries sustained in the crash on Icy State Aid 35 near the Holiday Mobile Home Park the morning of Nov. 26.

Det. Mike Crouch of the Pontoon Beach Police Department said that Sealey had been thrown from the car during the accident and suffered head injuries. She was taken by helicopter to St. Louis University Medical Center, where she died at 4:35 p.m. Wednesday.

Also dead as a result of the crash, which occurred at about 10:30 a.m. Nov. 26, is Rodney Churney, the driver of the car in which Sealey and three other teens were riding.

Churney, 18, who had recently moved to Pontoon Beach from Kokomo, Ind., was pronounced dead at the scene of the crash.

Three other passengers in Churney's car, Eric Sloan, 17, of the 2100 block of Cleveland Boulevard, Bobby Madewell, 17, of Wilson Drive and Erica Ditch, 16, of the 2500 block of Iowa Street were injured in the crash.

Holiday message: It's 'a scary place'

By Kevin Glenn
Staff writer

Lights twinkle above snow-dusted sidewalks. Music drifts through the crisp wintry air.

It's the holiday season. Time for colorful toys, cheerful children — and danger lurking around every corner.

"There are bad people out there that want to do bad things to kids," said Suzanne Huebner, director of I-SHIELD, an agency dedicated to protecting vulnerable citizens.

"The world as it is today is such a scary place for little guys."

Huebner plans to deliver that message to area schools within weeks, alerting youngsters and parents to watch out for each other amid the holiday hustle and bustle.

"A lot of times the schools assume the parents are keeping kids informed of the dangers out there," Huebner said. And parents assume the same about the schools.

"I want to make sure somebody's doing it."

The safety awareness campaign comes at the heels of two missing children cases in the St. Louis area within the past few weeks.

A deer hunter found the body of kidnapped 9-year-old Angie Marie Housman Nov. 28 near a wooded ravine of the August A. Busch Wildlife Refuge in St. Charles County. The St. Louis Major Case Squad is still searching for the killer.

Authorities in north St. Louis County began a search Wednesday for 10-year-old

McPike expects to remain in Springfield as a lobbyist

SPRINGFIELD — Jim McPike of Alton says he has had no job offers but that a lobbying career is most likely after he steps down as state representative.

He spiked speculation he might be offered an executive post with Argosy Gaming Co., the firm that owns the Alton Belle Casino and is embarked on casino expansion efforts in Missouri, Indiana and Louisiana.

"I've heard that rumor for a year. I haven't had any offer from anybody. I don't intend to stay in Alton and work for Argosy or Olin (Corp.) or anybody else," McPike said last week.

McPike, who announced Nov. 27 that he intended to step down after his current term ends in January 1995, played a pivotal role in securing House passage of riverboat gambling legislation.

He is the Illinois House majority leader. He emphasized he has not made a decision on his career but acknowledged: "I will probably lobby in Springfield."

McPike could probably be a coveted and potentially highly paid lobbyist for numerous special interests because of his experience as majority leader, a role in which he was a chief negotiator for more than a decade on virtually every major issue before the Legislature.

His announcement fueled speculation under the Statehouse dome that his political mentor, House Speaker Michael Madigan, D-Chicago, also may not seek another term.

"I never asked (Madigan) about it," McPike said. "To my knowledge, he's running for re-election. Of course, until I told him last week, he assumed I was running for re-election."

McPike said he thinks Madigan intends to run again and that Democrats will retain control of the House in the 1994 election.

Madigan did not have the same senior leadership team, however. Assistant Majority Leader Zeke Giorgi of Rockford recently died. Another assistant, John Dunn of Decatur, is retiring.

Two other assistants, Tom Honer of Canton and Frank Gaglio of Calumet City, are seeking congressional seats.

McPike, a Democrat, said he has been increasingly frustrated with the Republican-controlled Senate elected in 1992.

Democrats had controlled that chamber for 14 years. He said Republicans will probably hold the Senate for several more years.

McPike said he has heard from many people since the announcement. "Everyone has wished me well and another term."

suppose those who don't wish me well probably wouldn't call," he said.

Meanwhile, Wood River Township Highway Commissioner Steve Davis, who has McPike's backing to succeed him, issued a statement saying McPike's decision "took me completely by surprise."

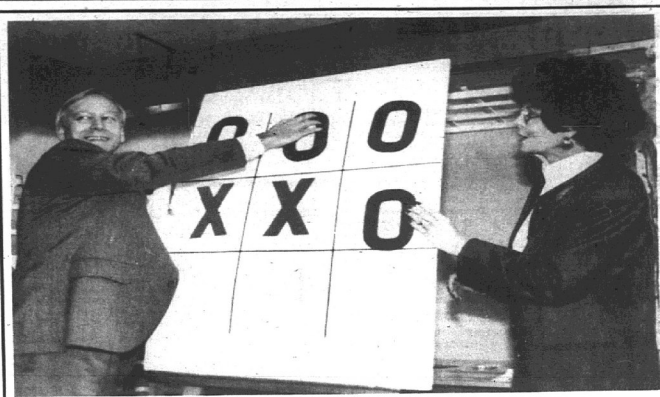

Davis earlier announced he would seek the Senate seat being vacated by Sam Vadalabene, D-Edwardsville.

His decision to go for the House will avoid a tough primary fight with Madison County Clerk Evelyn Bowles, who is now unchallenged for the Senate nod.

"The issues which led me to want to serve our area as state senator are the same ones I can tackle as a state representative: education funding, welfare reform, job creation and getting control of the state's budget," Davis said.

"Evelyn and I share the same Democratic values and the same goals for this area. I look forward to working with her in the legislature," Davis said.

Over the top — Tom Colbourn and Rosemarie Brown play Tic-Tac-Toe at the Tri-Cities Area United Way's final report meeting last month. The 1993 drive raised $1,104,599 in pledges, $19,599 over the goal.

Briggs will seek another term

Harry A. Briggs Jr. of Granite City will seek re-election as Madison County regional superintendent of schools.

Briggs announced his candidacy last week, citing innovations his office has made in special education, adult education and vocational education, as well as programs to combat drug abuse and to reduce truancy and dropouts.

"From Head Start children to at-risk youth to functionally illiterate adults, we serve citizens in all circumstances and help them, through education, to lead more independent lives," he said.

Briggs, a Democrat and former Granite City elementary school principal, was elected to the county office in 1989. He was endorsed Nov. 29 by the county party organization's executive committee.

Briggs was a teacher for 10 years and a principal for eight years before becoming regional superintendent. He holds bachelor's, master's and educational specialist degrees from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

He is a graduate of the Illinois Administrators Academy and holds the highest level of professional certification by the Illinois State Board of Education.

His uncle, Harold E. "Gene" Briggs of Nameoki Township, preceded him as county school superintendent.

Health vote petitions to get a boost

By Shay Wessol
Staff writer

Efforts to put a county health department on the March ballot swung into high gear Wednesday when Madison County Board members and petition drive organizers brainstormed for ideas to reach the public.

The petition drive has gotten off to a rocky start and organizers hope to change this through radio spots, public access programming on cable television and blanketing the county with more signature forms, said Debbie Groeteka, the county's petition drive coordinator.

Groeteka has until Dec. 22 to collect the 11,590 signatures needed to put the health department question on the ballot. As of Wednesday, she had 1,500 signatures in hand.

"Part of the problem is that you're so close to the issue that you just think everyone knows about it, and that's not always the case," said John Pitzer, regional health officer for the Illinois Department of Public Health, who is helping with the petition drive.

"I think a lot of people are completely in the dark about the issue," he said.

Madison County is the largest county in Illinois without a health department.

After years of lobbying by the League of Women Voters and a few County Board members, the board decided this year to ask voters to decide the issue.

If the 11,590 signatures are collected by Dec. 22, voters will be asked in the primary election in March to approve a tax rate increase of up to 10 cents per $100 assessed valuation to support a health department.

"Part of the problem is that you're so close to the issue that you just think everyone knows about it, and that's not always the case."

— John Pitzer
Health official

At the 10-cent rate, the health department would cost the owner of a $50,000 house about $16.60 a year.

Although state law requires a 10-cent rate in the referendum's wording for the ballot, several board members have said they don't think the entire 10 cents would be levied and have estimated a more realistic rate would be 4 to 5 cents.

When the petition drive got under way last month, Groeteka said she planned to involve groups such as Lions or Jaycees that would use community connections to help.

Many clubs, however, are not taking part, apparently because of their own holiday-related activities.

Groeteka said Wednesday that many organizations and governmental leaders were not participating in the campaign because it was viewed as a political issue.

She and board member Robert Stille, who chairs the county's Health Institutions Committee, stressed that the petition drive was only meant to bring the issue to a vote. Stille said petition circulators and signers were not necessarily advocating the passage of a health department.

"I don't think it's a political issue when you really get down to it," Stille said.

Groeteka also said many people were refusing to sign the petitions, fearing that if the referendum reached the ballot it would pass and bring higher taxes.

Still, Groeteka said, she is optimistic that the needed number of signatures will be collected. She said she expects many more signatures to be turned in with other candidate petitions after filing for county and state offices begins Monday.

The Edwardsville chapter of the League of Women Voters has opted out of the petition drive, asserting that some County Board members are using the proposed referendum to indirectly kill the chances for a health department. Leaders of the Edwardsville group have said they are worried voters will be scared off by the 10-cent tax increase required in the wording.

However, the Collinsville chapter of the league is circulating petitions, in part because of a plea for support from board member Harold Byers of Highland, one of the staunchest health department advocates on the County Board.

Yule carolers being sought

Granite City area residents are being asked to join members of the St. Louis Christmas Carols Association in the association's annual musical fund raiser.

Last year, nearly 1,500 caroling groups raised $43,000 while bringing the Christmas message in song to their neighbors.

Caroling groups may reserve streets in their area and will be provided with song sheets, collection canisters and logo identification.

Persons or groups interested in participating may call Dick Oliver at 877-2741 or Hilde Few at 797-4627.

New trade pact unfair to U.S.

TO THE EDITOR:
I must agree with U.S. Rep. Jerry Costello in regard to the necessity of negotiating a trade agreement with Canada and Mexico that is fair to all parties. The newly approved NAFTA (North American Free Trade Agreement) is not fair.
This NAFTA will cost U.S. taxpayers billions of dollars to implement. It will condone human-rights atrocities, will contribute to illegal immigration and will cost us many jobs.
If anyone watched the debate on NAFTA between Vice President Al Gore and Ross Perot, NAFTA looked pretty good and Perot looked pretty stupid.
Perhaps this is what Perot planned, since he is already reaping the benefits of cheap Mexican labor. Think about it and call your congressman.

MICHAEL RAY DILLIER, Granite City

Madison County may be putting elections back in the hands of voters

(Alton Telegraph comment)

It's been customary for many decades for the Democratic Party in Madison County to spend huge amounts of money in elections for countywide offices. Party loyalists who expected to hold onto jobs in the courthouse would contribute lavishly. No more, thank you.

Proceeds from this year's Democratic-Elected Madison County Officials fund-raiser were halved, from $17,600 last year to only $7,200.

For many years, party faithful in the patronage system were expected to participate in party officials' picnics, dinners and other events. (Many were also, at one time, required to pay the party a "lug," literally a fee for the privilege of holding a job.) Much of that is gone now. Republican officeholders like John Shimkus have spurned such fund-raising. Now, Democrats like Circuit Clerk Matt Melucci are also shunning the practice.

Protection from forced purchases of tickets to fund-raisers has even been codified in county labor contracts.

Party politics is certainly a part of the American scene.

Competition between party ideals and programs is a means for voters to set directions for their community or their country. But mighty, monolithic political machines are rapidly fading, whether in New York, Chicago or Madison County.

The quality of government has rarely depended on the amount of money spent to elect officials. We're delighted to see fund-raising and campaign spending on a scale more appropriate to a concerned and interested public, rather than a lock-stepping army of political functionaries.

The Madison County Humane Society's annual Campaign Kindness is in progress, and among the volunteer solicitors is Sheila Kirk of Pontoon Beach who says she loves the task. "I think I've found my calling," she jokes.

"But, really, I didn't know there were so many animals out there. You hear sad stories — really sad — but you hear the good too."

"People seem to love to hear about their experiences with animals and they're willing to give, too."

For information about drive, or to call in pledges, persons may call the headquarters at 692-6966. Tax-deductible gifts can be mailed directly to the Campaign for Kindness of Magma Bank, P.O. Box 5, Carbon, IL 62034.

Kim Sorensen says she probably got home with a dog by the end of the campaign. "I keep telling myself that but little, white doggy cute and I know he needs home," the Holiday House resident said, referring to the homeless canine brought campaign headquarters November.

Food drive under

A canned food drive will be held until Dec. 24 at Community Mail. The shopping third annual food drive is the Glen-Ed Pantry.

"Food drives like this are important because they help people who are in jeopardy. We can't enjoy the holidays the way our families do. The reason the donations to try are so important," Moody, director of the Pantry.

Donations from individuals, businesses and organizations may be dropped off at the Giving Tree on the lower level or a bin can be provided at 692-8025.

MCHS volunteers begin fund-raising drive

By Shay Wesso
Staff writer

The Madison County Humane Society's annual Campaign for Kindness is in progress, and among the volunteer solicitors is Shellie Kirk of Ponton Beach, who says she loves the task.

"I think I've found my calling," she jokes. "But, really, I didn't know there were so many animal lovers out there. You hear some sad stories — really sad stories — but you hear the good ones, too."

"People seem to love to talk about their experiences with animals and they're willing to give, too."

For information about the drive, or to call in pledges, persons may call the headquarters at 692-6986.

Tax-deductible gifts can also be mailed directly to the Campaign for Kindness c/o Magna Bank, P.O. Box 520, Glen Carbon, IL 62034.

Kim Sorenson says she will probably go home with a new dog by the end of the campaign. "I keep telling myself 'No,' but that little white dog is so cute and I know he needs a good home."

The Holiday Shores resident said, referring to a homeless canine brought into the campaign headquarters in late November.

"We're doing our best with extremely limited resources. Since we depend completely on donations from the public, it's easy to understand why this campaign is so important to us."

— Ledy Vankavage
MCHS vice president

But one house isn't big enough to hold all the needy dogs and cats in the county, and Sorenson said that, since she can't take them all home, she'll do whatever else she can to help.

Kirk and Sorenson are two of dozens of volunteers working the Humane Society's holiday phone-a-thon, a campaign to raise awareness and money to aid more than 1,000 homeless animals the society deals with each year.

Sorenson, like many of the other phone operators, works after her day job and on weekends. She even appeared one-day with a temperature and bad cold, raring to go.

"I'm not too good on the phones today since I don't have much of a voice, but I can do other administrative-type things," she said.

Volunteers are calling county residents and businesses through Dec. 18 with hopes of raising about $25,000 for the county Humane Society.

Funds will be used for the day-to-day care, housing and feeding of animals and to offset costs of a new shelter, scheduled to be under construction this spring, said Ledy Vankavage.

MCHS vice president. The county shelter currently rents space from the Animal Control Shelter on Marine Road in rural Edwardsville.

The new facility will be able to accommodate four times as many animals as the current space does.

"MCHS has come a long way since we were founded in 1986, and we continue to expand our services to meet the demands of the community," Vankavage said.

"We're doing our best with extremely limited resources. Since we depend completely on donations from the public, it's easy to understand why this campaign is so important to us."

Campaign headquarters, located at Cottonwood Mall in Glen Carbon, are bustling with activity and smiles as volunteers keep up a furious pace of dialing numbers and talking with residents.

Operators handle many calls each hour, and grins spread across their faces as they find a kind ear willing to listen to their message.

The walls at the site are littered with inspirational pictures of critters, and there are occasional visits from some of the society's homeless animals who are waiting to be adopted.

To break the monotony, workers play word games on the boards posting the latest tally of funds raised.

Between calls, shouts of "Give me an 'e'" and "Hey, I know this word" can be heard before busy fingers again return to the phones to dial the next number.

Major sponsors of the walk were Yonaka Jewelry, Bobby's Frozen Custard, Alton Holiday Inn, Collinsville Holiday Inn, Mediterranean Taverna, Subway, Pat Lowry/Sound Service, Cafe Panache, Jack in the Box, P.K.'s Restaurant, Randy's Restaurant, Mills Apple Farm, and Dunn Lowry.

Lazerson may get year of paid leave from SIUE

Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville President Earl Lazerson may receive a year's leave at his current salary after his resignation is effective Dec. 31.

That provision is part of a proposed resolution to go before the Southern Illinois University Board of Trustees at its Dec. 9 meeting in Edwardsville.

The proposal, recommended by SIU Chancellor James Brown, would award Lazerson the titles of president emeritus and distinguished service professor effective Jan. 1 and allow him a year of professional development leave beginning Jan. 1.

During the leave, Lazerson would continue to receive his current $106,816 salary, but not the $18,000 yearly housing allowance. In addition, he would be provided an office in the chancellor's office, half-time secretarial help, a business telephone at home and reimbursement of expenses related to university activities not to exceed $5,000.

The proposed resolution also calls for Lazerson to resume duties as a professor of mathematics for one year beginning Jan. 1, 1995, at a salary commensurate with his qualifications and the salary levels in that department.

A nine-member presidential search committee submitted a list of finalists to Brown for a recommendation to the board. The list has not been made public, but the finalists included four candidates who recently visited the campus.

They were: Nancy Belck, provost and vice chancellor for academic affairs at Louisiana State University, Shreveport, La.; Richard Crofts, vice president for academic affairs at Mankato State University, Mankato, Minn.; Richard S. Meyers, president of Western Oregon State College, Monmouth, Ore.; and G. Warren Smith II, president of Southeastern Louisiana University, Hammond, La.

Kickoff Wednesday for third Christmas in April

Christmas in April Tri-Cities Area will head toward its third annual home repair and renovation blitz with a kickoff breakfast at 7:30 a.m. Wednesday, Dec. 8, at Charlie's Restaurant, 5240 Nameoki Road.

Christmas in April was sponsored and organized by the Granite City Board of Realtors in December 1991.

Sponsors say eight homeowners have been the beneficiaries of the program in the first two years of its existence.

"With no experience, a lot of enthusiasm and big hearts, scores of volunteers rehabbed three homes in April 1992 and five homes in April 1993," a spokesman said.

"The group was supported by the United Way, community professionals, clergy, businesses and helpers from all walks of life."

"Eight home owners, elderly, low-income and disabled, have been enabled to live with dignity and independence in warmth and safety."

"The hundreds of people involved in the project derive a joyful sense of having made a real difference in their community, improving the quality of life."

Christmas in April is inviting communitywide participation in the project so that it can be expanded each year to help as many truly needy home owners as possible.

Participation is invited in the kickoff breakfast Dec. 8 and on the work day, April 23.

Anyone interested in contributing money, materials, time and skills may contact Janet Partney at 452-3900, Margaret and Owen Rollberg at 676-4746 or Lucinda Schmidt at 451-6086.

Here are a few timely Decorating Ideas from the experts at

FRANK'S NURSERY & CRAFTS

Where Beautiful Things Begin

Wreaths and trees, garlands and swags. Traditional holiday decor in many a home. With a little bit of planning, you can have your most beautiful holiday home ever. Here are a few basic decorating ideas. Combine them with the use of your imagination and get ready for a fantastic holiday!

Centerpieces

These are a great way to bring a little holiday cheer to any table setting. They can be formal, romantic, or just plain fun. You can move them from dining table to coffee table, or any other surface.

Candles

There's no time like the holidays for the use of candles. You can use one large candle in a floral candle ring or use multiple candles in an array of colors and sizes. You can even use an array of candle holders. Maybe you'd like to try arranging a group of candles over an oval or circular piece of cut mirror. Of course, you should exercise care when using candles. Don't put them near your tree or anything else that's potentially dangerous.

Collectibles

You can display a group of figures you've been collecting, such as Santas. They look great and will show off your collection at the same time.

Mini tree

Pick up one of Frank's little one-foot mini trees and some mini ornaments. They're fun to decorate and they'll turn into a real conversation piece.

Fish bowl of color

This is something you probably haven't thought of. Use a large, clear glass bowl such as a fish bowl or terrarium bowl. Fill it with colored glass balls. Candles or soft lights in the room will catch the sparkle of the balls and create a beautiful scene.

Holiday plants

A living centerpiece can be created with a poinsettia or Christmas cactus. For an additional festive look, place your holiday plant in a brass or metal plant pot, tie a holiday bow on the pot and use holiday-floral picks as a finishing touch.

Lights

Remember those old-fashioned bubble lights that used to be on your tree when you were little? Good news! You can still get them at Frank's. Once the bulb heats up, the liquid inside starts to bubble, creating a sense of movement. Try to keep them pointing straight up. Leaning bubble lights just don't have the same effect.

How many lights does a tree need to look good? Everybody has their own theory on that. But here's a general guideline.

Tree Height in Feet	Number of Mini Lights
2	35-50
3	70-100
4	100-140
5	200-280
7	315-450
7 1/2	400-650
9	600-900
10	800-1100

These figures are our recommendation, and of course, you may wish to deter from it either way to suit your own taste. Whatever you do, always remember: Don't string too many lights together on the same extension cord. Check each box and it will tell you how many lights you can safely attach together.

Chasing lights always add a little "extra" flair to any light display. These flash on and off, but in a pattern that makes it look like the lights are actually moving. A speed control allows you to adjust the "motion" to your preference.

Stop by Frank's, check out the decorating items, and have fun!

Granite City grapplers
rout Edwardsville, 51-12By Mike Kelly

Crush, kill and destroy. Those words best describe Friday's non-conference wrestling match at Granite City High School. The Warriors won 10 matches in decisive fashion and buried Edwardsville, 51-12. The victory raised Granite City's record to 4-0 on the season. Edwardsville fell to 4-2.

"GRANITE CITY HAS tremendous balance," Edwardsville coach Babe Stahlhut said. "There isn't a weak spot in their lineup. It's tough scoring points against them and you're certainly not going pin them."

"All these kids know how to wrestle. They've been around a while because of the great junior high and kids programs they have in their community."

The rout came in on Edwardsville after Doc Sanders (102 pounds) pinned Matt Weisenborn (in 2:30) in the opening match. The Warriors captured eight of the next nine matches and built an insurmountable 45-9 lead.

Nathan Bryan (180) halted the streak by winning a 4-3 decision against John Watkins. But Granite City heavyweight Chris Janek applied the finishing touch by pinning Ryan Stolis (in 3:08).

"Our kids might have been a little intimidated before the match," Stahlhut said. "It's tough coming in here to wrestle, let alone winning a match. I talked about it all week, but it still had an effect on our kids."

BUT THE WARRIORS have another name for intimidation: tradition.

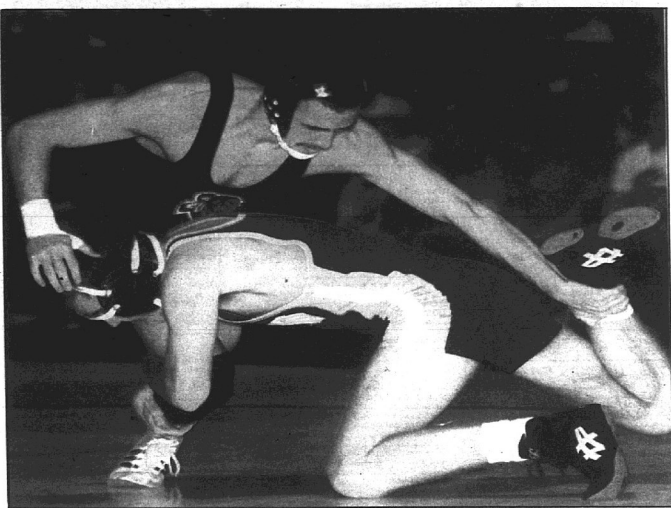

"Just like the soccer team (which has won 10 state titles), our kids try to outdo each other year after year," Granite City coach Mike Garland said. "It's a snowball effect. That's why our wrestling program has been so successful over the years."

But the Warriors, who have dominated the Metro East the last three years, are shooting for a higher star this season: the state tournament.

"With my brother (Greg) and Tom Blah (a two-time state runnerup from Tinley Park and an All-American at SIUE) coaching with me this season, we're constantly interchanging ideas to make our kids better wrestlers at state," Garland said. "After all, that's the ultimate goal."

"We've got some kids that can do very well up there this year. We're going to prepare them with the toughest competition they can handle during the season. Some of our kids might have 10 or 12 losses by regional time, but they'll be better wrestlers," Garland said.

Warriors' Black shoots down Knights

Granite City's Jason Black pumped in 31 points and ignited a second-half outburst Friday night as the Warriors routed visiting Triad 68-45 in a non-conference game.

Black hit nine three-point field goals, including five in the second half, to lead the Warriors to their first victory of the year.

The senior off guard scored 19 points in the second half, nearly matching Triad's total of 20 points for the final two quarters. Black helped the Warriors (1-1) turn a 31-25 lead at halftime into a 50-36 advantage, heading into the final quarter. Granite City overwhelmed Triad (0-1) in the second half with a 37-20 run.

"THREE FACTORS DID us in," Triad coach Richard Mason said. "We got beat on the defensive boards, we had too many turnovers and we didn't defend (Black). He really filled it up. I don't think he missed too many."

Black hit seven of nine shots from three-point range and made 11 of 15 shots overall. He knocked down three treys in the third quarter to lead a 19-11 run by the Warriors.

Black hit his final long-range shot with 45 seconds to go to give the Warriors a 67-44 lead. Even after making defensive adjustments along the way, the Knights could not stop Black.

"I think he forced it a little early," Van Buskirk said.

"Then, he relaxed. We knew he was going to score some points."

Although Black accounted for nearly half of his team's scoring total, the Warriors got a strong all-around performance from senior forward Rob Wallace.

Wallace had 11 points and a game-high 12 rebounds.

"HE'S A GOOD PLAYER," Van Buskirk said.

"He makes positive things happen. He led us in hard work and dives to the floor, and he'll lead us in that all year."

The Warriors dominated the inside against the less experienced Knights, who started sophomores Nathan Taylor and Josh Cigliana. Granite City outrebounded Triad 32-19.

Most of Triad's offensive production came from the perimeter, where junior guard Chris McMillin scored the bulk of his team-high 17 points.

McMillin scored 12 of the Knights' 20 points in the second half, including two three-pointers in the third quarter.

"The Knights simply ran out of steam in the second half, when the quicker Warriors took control."

"WE COOLED OFF pretty well," Mason said.

"We couldn't hit anything for a while. We tried to move around the ball on the perimeter a little bit. We had

Coolidge cagers stay positive despite season-long strugglesBy Mike Kelly
Correspondent

Coolidge Junior High's eighth-grade basketball team is experiencing a tough season. The Braves are currently 0-6, but coach Mike Edwards couldn't be prouder of his team. Despite a pair of lopsided losses to Madison and North Junior High of Collinsville, Coolidge has played a competitive brand of basketball.

"THERE ISN'T ANY quit in these boys," Edwards said. "They've fought their tails off all season. We just haven't gotten the breaks. I'm not discouraged, though. I feel a victory is right around the corner."

A 38-33 loss to Wood River, a 30-26 loss to Bethalto and a 47-42 loss to East Alton have raised Edwards' hopes.

"Those are all good basketball programs," he said. "They've played them tough for nearly four quarters. Our kids just ran out of steam in the final period and that allowed them to pull away."

That was certainly the case

Tuesday against North Junior High. Coolidge outplayed North through the first three quarters, but the Braves couldn't give up.

"We went through one sequence where we had nine shots at the basket and none of them would fall," Edwards said. "Then they come down to the other end and bury a three (pointer). That's the way things go sometimes."

"When you're struggling like we are, it's tough to buy a break. But these kids are determined. Instead of sulking, they're anxious to play

Age, maturity factors in buying sporting firearm

Thanksgiving and the shopping day of the year are behind us. But for most of the bulk of the Christmas shopping remains.

Each year about the many parents agonize whether to get their daughter a gun, sports rifle or sporting firearm — for fun.

ONCE the decision is there are many questions of what type of firearm the gun should be.

Every parent or set of must make the decision whether their young daughter is old enough to handle the responsibility of a firearm. Obviously, the fixed age.

However, several states set a bit of an arbitrary limit when it comes to hunting types of game. Missouri regulations require that a child be born on or after Jan. 1, 1980, to receive a certification to receive a certification. This card must be dispensed by any type of hunting permit.

But at the beginning of the year, the Missouri Game Commission passed a rule that no one under the age of 18 could take the certification. It also approved that no one younger than 18 could hunt deer or turkey. However, another rule youngsters under the age hunt without purchasing a permit if they are accompanied by a legally licensed adult.

SO THE AGE question up to the parents.

Walt Beumer, of O'Fallon, Ill., says his son was 11 when he first gun. Beumer, president of the Missouri State Hunter Education Institute, said, "I got Jeff a single gauge. It was gauge, a mid cutting the stock, fit him. It was a safety and was light."

Why the 20 gauge venerable 410 bore or 22? Beumer grins. "We wanted a shotgun. We were hunting mostly type

Age, maturity factors in buying sporting firearms

Thanksgiving and the biggest shopping day of the year are behind us. But for most of us, the bulk of the Christmas shopping remains.

Each year about this time, many parents agonize about whether to get their son or daughter a gun—specifically a sporting firearm—for Christmas.

ONCE THE decision is made, there are many questions about what type of firearm that "first gun" should be.

Every parent or set of parents must make the decision on whether their youngster has demonstrated enough maturity to handle the responsibility of a firearm. Obviously, there is no fixed age.

However, several states have set a bit of an arbitrary age when it comes to hunting certain types of game. Missouri wildlife regulations require that anyone born on or after Jan. 1, 1967, must complete a state hunter education course and pass a test to receive a certification card. This card must be displayed to purchase any type of firearms hunting permit.

But at the beginning of this year, the Missouri State Shooting Commission passed a regulation that no one under the age of 11 could take the hunter certification. It also approved a rule that no one younger than 11 could hunt deer.

However, another rule allows youngsters under the age of 16 to hunt without purchasing a permit if they are accompanied by a legally licensed adult.

SO THE AGE question is still up to the parents.

Walt Beumer, of O'Fallon, said his son was 11 when he got his first gun. Beumer, president of the Missouri State Shooting Association and a volunteer hunter education instructor, noted, "I got Jeff a single-barrel 20 gauge. It was cheap, so I didn't mind cutting the stock down to fit him. It was a .410 bore or safety and it was light for him."

Why the 20 gauge over the venerable .410 bore or 12 gauge? Beumer grinned and said, "We wanted a shotgun because we were hunting mostly shotgun-type things: rabbits and squirrels. I wanted the 20 gauge because a .410 is too much of a challenge for a youngster."

It has been written many times in many places that a .410 is an expert's gun, even though many youngsters must suffer through the frustration of trying to hit something with its small pattern of pellets.

Volunteer hunter education instructor Lou Jett, of Coeur, also gets asked questions about which gun and when while teaching hunter education throughout the West County area. "I usually demonstrate with Mike (volunteer hunter education instructor Mike Reiter of Fenton) and his daughter," Jett observed. "He purchased a gun that fit her and then taught her how to use it."

JETT ADDED, "My preference, if I had a son or daughter, would be to start out with a squirrel hunting. I prefer a shotgun over a 20 rifle."

Jim Barnett, a volunteer hunter education instructor from Hazelwood, has his preferences. But he starts out asking questions. "I ask parents what they're looking for," he said.

"I ask, 'What are you planning to hunt?' If they want to target shoot, I suggest a single shot bolt action .22 for safety and to make the youngster work at the first shot," Barnett explained.

"If they want to hunt with a shotgun, I recommend a 20 gauge shotgun. I tell parents that the NRA recommends a semi-automatic, but I recommend they let the youngster load one shell at a time because the recoil can cause an inexperienced shooter to fire again."

"But I usually recommend a pump shotgun so they have to work the action," Barnett said.

"IF THEY want a centerfire, I suggest considering the size of the person. Most are interested in either the .243 or the 30-30. If they like the .243, I suggest a bolt action. If they want a 30-30 lever action, I suggest one with a hammer block safety."

Many parents require that their children complete a state hunter education course either before they get a firearm or before they can use the one they have. While hunter education courses are not going to teach anyone everything they need to know how to become a good and a safe hunter or shooter, they are a good start.

For information about courses throughout the metropolitan area, contact the Missouri Department of Conservation's Metro Office at 314-821-1571.

ball and an independent for most of its other sports.

"I think the conference is stable now...and pretty evenly balanced across the board," Pitot said. "I know it's where Collinsville belongs. It wouldn't surprise me to see Edwardsville back in it some day."

East St. Louis has controlled SWC football, while Collinsville is the kingpin in basketball with 40 championships won or shared. Most came during coach Vergil Fletcher's tenure (1949-78).

It has been difficult for most of the other schools to budge Collinsville from the championship seat. East St. Louis' title last year marked its first outright title since 1981 and ended Collinsville's six-year reign.

Alton has been competitive through the years in SWC basketball, but found championships elusive. The Redbirds have won or shared only eight championships since the 1930s. They last tied for first place in 1986 haven't had an undisputed title since 1980.

Granite City, East St. Louis and Belleville West have also won or shared eight titles apiece. Granite City's last title came in 1985-86, when the Warriors shared the crown with Alton.

Yet Collinsville, for all its basketball glory, has had a multitude of problems winning in football. So not one school is dominating the SWC.

"I think all the schools are very similar in size and strength," Pitot said. "The current set-up is pretty rock-solid." More than anything, it's the comforting thought about the SWC. While many other schools are scrambling to join this conference or that league to satisfy their football desires, the SWC stresses stability.

Its basketball has produced three state champions—Granite City (1980) and Collinsville (1981 and 1985)—and a scrapbook full of warm memories.

Happy birthday, SWC. May your next 70 years of basketball be just as delightful.

Your rights may be affected by the settlement of a class action lawsuit pending in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. PLEASE READ THIS NOTICE CAREFULLY AND CALL 1-800-847-2727 FOR MORE INFORMATION

DESCRIPTION OF LAWSUIT AND SETTLEMENT

Certain individuals have brought a class action lawsuit entitled Carlucci v. Amchem Products Inc. et al., C.A. No. 93-CV-0215 (E.D. Pa.), seeking personal injury damages as a result of occupational exposure to asbestos against the following 20 defendant companies:

Amchem Products, Inc., A.P. Green Industries, Inc., Armstrong World Industries, Inc., CertainTeed Corp., C.E. Thurston and Sons, Incorporated, Dana Corp., Ferro America, Inc., Flexitallic, Inc., GAF Corp., I.U. North America, Inc., Marent Corp., Asbestos Claims Management Corporation (formerly known as National Gypsum Company), National Services Industries, Inc., Norpro Corp., Pizer Inc., Quaker Oats Company, Schlumberger, Fletcher Insulation, T&N plc, Union Carbide Chemicals and Plastics Company Inc. (formerly known as Union Carbide Corporation), United States Gypsum Company.

The individuals bringing the lawsuit seek damages both for themselves and for a class of other similarly situated persons. The Court has conditionally certified that class solely for purposes of a possible settlement of the lawsuit. The counsel listed at the bottom of this Notice have been appointed as Class Counsel.

A proposed Settlement has been reached between the court-appointed representatives of the class and the 20 defendant companies.

The Settlement sets up a system to compensate class members who meet certain asbestos exposure requirements if and when they develop certain asbestos-related medical conditions. Compensation will also be available in death cases.

Compensation amounts reflect amounts paid by the 20 defendant companies to similar claimants whose cases have been settled.

A hearing will be held by the Court in Courtroom 11A, U.S. Courthouse, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on February 22, 1994, to determine whether the proposed Settlement should be approved by the Court as fair, reasonable, and adequate.

If the Settlement is approved by the Court, it will settle all claims for asbestos-related personal injury (including claims based on premises ownership or vicarious liability) against the 20 defendant companies by all members of the class who do not exclude themselves from the class. Claims settled will include 1) personal injury, damage or death and all forms of mental or emotional harm; 2) loss of support, services, consortium, companionship, society and other valuable services made by spouses, parents, children or other relatives (including wrongful death and survival actions); 3) punitive, aggravated, or exemplary damages of any sort.

WHO IS A MEMBER OF THE CLASS?

1. All persons (or their legal representatives) who have been occupationally or domestically exposed to the occupational exposure of a spouse or household member, to asbestos or to asbestos-containing products for which one or more of the 20 defendant companies may bear legal liability, but who had not, as of January 15, 1993, filed a lawsuit for asbestos-related personal injuries against one or more of those companies. The occupational exposure to asbestos or asbestos-containing products must have taken place while the exposed worker was working in the United States or its territories, or while working on U.S. military, merchant or passenger ships. Class members must also have resided in the U.S. or its territories as of January 15, 1993.

2. Spouses, parents, children, or other relatives of the exposed worker (or their legal representatives) who had not, as of January 15, 1993, filed a personal injury lawsuit based on the exposed worker's asbestos exposure, are also class members.

"Occupational exposure" to asbestos generally means that an individual's job responsibility involved working with or around asbestos or asbestos-containing products. These exposures occurred in industrial settings or during construction activities. "Occupational exposure" to asbestos does not include "environmental exposure," such as that potentially experienced by office workers in buildings where asbestos-containing products were present.

If you are covered by this definition, you are a class member, whether or not you are presently suffering from an asbestos-related medical condition.

CONSEQUENCES OF CLASS MEMBERSHIP

If you are a member of the class and wish to remain a class member, you need to do nothing further at this time. If you remain in the class and a Settlement is approved by the Court, you will get the benefit of that Settlement. By remaining in the class, you will have accepted these procedures as the only means of resolving claims based on asbestos-related personal injury or damage against the 20 defendant companies.

REQUESTS FOR EXCLUSION

If you want to be excluded from the class, you must fill out an "Exclusion Request," and return it to the Court at the address listed in that form no later than January 24, 1994. (Directions for obtaining an "Exclusion Request" are not given below). If you exclude yourself from the class, you will not get the benefit of a Settlement. You may, however, pursue any claims for asbestos-related personal injury or damage against the 20 defendant companies by filing your own lawsuit at your own expense through the usual court procedures.

APPEARANCE BY COUNSEL

The Class Counsel identified below will act as your counsel in this class action at no expense to you; however, you may also have your own attorney appear in this action on your behalf and at your own expense.

OBJECTIONS TO SETTLEMENT

Class members may object to the proposed Settlement, either on their own or through counsel. ## Hospital association achievement award

The Illinois Hospital Association recently presented the Recognition Award for Professional Achievement to Merle L. Aukamp of Belleville at its annual meeting held in Chicago. The award was presented to him by Gerald Harman, the executive vice president of St. Elizabeth's Hospital in Belleville. Harman also serves as Chairman of the Committee on Nominations for the Illinois Hospital Association.

In addition, Harman serves on the board of directors of Hospice of Southern Illinois, Inc., where Aukamp currently serves as the president and chief executive officer.

Prior to accepting the helm of Hospice of Southern Illinois, Aukamp served Marion Memorial Hospital as administrator for 11 years.

During his tenure there he was very instrumental in every aspect of that hospital's modernization including the acquisition of 25 acres of prime real estate near a major interstate for future development. He also oversaw the construction of a new intensive care unit and the development of a cardiac rehabilitation program to name a few.

Aukamp also served as administrator of Alton Memorial Hospital from 1975 to 1982. His efforts to build a $9 million addition to the hospital and other major accomplishments continue to provide excellent health care services to residents of Alton and the surrounding communities.

Headquartered in Belleville, Hospice of Southern Illinois, Inc. provides palliative hospice services for residents in 27 southern Illinois counties. Hospice of Southern Illinois, Inc. is the second largest geographic hospice in the United States, and regarded as one of the top hospices in the country today.

Support groups have been in existence for many years. They can become a vital and positive influence in the lives of both patients and those who care about them. By providing information about their disease and how to live with it, support group members can create a better working partnership between patient and physician.

Memorial believes that support groups provide an opportunity for patients, along with their families and friends to discuss uncertainties and learn to place them in perspective. Better than any other technique, talking in a support group with people who share common problems, helps them understand that they are not alone.

The following is information about Memorial-sponsored support groups. For more information about these groups, call the Community Relations Department at 233-7750, extension 5649.

DIABETES

A mutual support group comprised of people with diabetes, their families and people who have had their lives affected by diabetes. Meetings are held on the fourth Monday of every month from 9 to 11 a.m. in the hospital auditorium. NEXT MEETING: December 27

FIBROMYALGIA SYNDROME

This support group is for people with fibromyalgia syndrome (FMS) and their families. FMS is considered to be a widespread musculoskeletal pain and fatigue disorder for which the cause is still unknown. Meetings are held on the third Tuesday of every month from

7 to 9 p.m. in the hospital auditorium. NEXT MEETING: December 21

Director gets Rainbows training

Coordinated Youth and Human Services of Granite City is announcing that Cindy Gavilsky, assistant director, was recently trained to serve as a registered director with the Rainbows for All Children program.

As a registered director, Gavilsky can implement the Rainbows program for schools, churches, community groups and other interested parties.

Rainbows is an international program designed for children and adults who have experienced the loss of a parent through death or divorce. Such a loss triggers grief and a flood of complex emotions, she said.

The Rainbows program helps participants deal with their feelings, work through their grief, understand their anger and constructively begin the new life that they must face.

"Rainbows provides a ray of sunshine and hope after the storm of a loss," Gavilsky said.

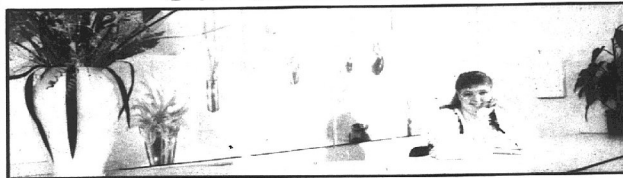

The Rainbows training was made possible through the Tri-Cities Area United Way as an effort to address grief issues in the community.

Persons interested in obtaining more information on the rainbows program may contact Cindy Gavilsky at 876-2383.

Bring home holiday tradition with aroma of warm cookies

The most celebrated holiday traditions in America include gift-giving, entertaining and baking holiday cookies, according to a recent Land O'Lakes Holiday Bakealong survey.

The bakealong — toll-free (800) 782-9606 — earns a warm spot in some bakers' hearts. Operators answer questions that arise in the kitchen and help bring the warming aroma of homemade cookies into American homes.

Cookie customs from around the world bring people together in the spirit of the season.

Families in Scandinavia look forward to baking Festive Julekage, a holiday bread filled with raisins and candied fruit. Another custom there revolves around magical little Nisse, who lives in every household. During the holidays, children put out homemade porridge in the garage — previously the barn — for the mischievous creature to help ward off bad luck in the coming year.

Families in Mexico share treats during more festive nights of ceremonies called Posadas. They sing carols outside friends' homes and often are invited in to share dinner. Mexican Wedding Cakes are delicate cookies resembling snowballs that can be dropped off while caroling through the neighborhood.

One holiday gift-giving tradition was declared a legal holiday in Great Britain. On Boxing Day, Dec. 26 or the first work day after Christmas — people give gifts to co-workers. The name originated in the Middle Ages when people placed gifts of money in special boxes at church.

Today baked goods are a popular gift for Boxing Day.

Here are some sweet treats with international appeal to keep the baking tradition alive.

Mexican chocolate wedding cakes

¾ cup firmly packed brown sugar
¼ cup (1 ½ sticks) butter, softened
3 squares (1 oz. each) unsweetened baking chocolate, melted
1 tsp. vanilla
2 cups flour
1 cup chopped nuts
½ tsp. salt
Confectioner's sugar

Preheat oven to 350°.

In large bowl, combine brown sugar and butter. Beat at medium speed, scraping bowl often, 1 to 2 minutes until light and fluffy. Add melted chocolate and vanilla. Continue beating, scraping bowl often, until well mixed.

Reduce speed to low. Add flour, nuts and salt. Continue beating, scraping bowl often, until well mixed.

Shape dough by rounded teaspoonful into 1-inch balls. Place 2 inches apart on cookie sheets. Bake in preheated oven 8 to 10 minutes until set.

Cool 5 minutes on cookie sheets. Remove carefully. Cool another 5 minutes.

Roll in confectioner's sugar while still warm and again when cooled.

Yields 5 dozen.

Scottish shortbread

1 ½ cups flour
¼ cup confectioner's sugar
½ cup cake flour
1 cup butter, softened
½ tsp. cinnamon
1 tbsp. granulated sugar
½ tsp. cinnamon

Preheat oven to 350°.

In large bowl, combine flour, confectioner's sugar, cake flour, butter and cinnamon. With fork, stir together until soft dough forms. Press evenly on bottom of two (9-inch) pie pans.

In small bowl, stir together granulated sugar and cinnamon. Sprinkle over shortbread. Score each in 8 wedges. Pierce all over with fork. Bake in preheated oven 20 to 30 minutes until light golden brown.

Remove from oven. Let stand 5 minutes. Cut into wedges. Store in airtight container.

ENTERTAINMENT

Remade tunes often reap chart success

By Bill Beggs
Correspondent

ONE MORE TIME: Many recording artists have scored hits by remaking songs recorded by someone else. Remakes can be smart marketing — targeting songs to a generation that didn't hear them first time around.

Fats Domino had a No. 10 hit in 1955 with his tune, "Ain't That A Shame." Pat Boone took the song to No. 1 later that year. The tune made the Top 40 two other times, in 1963 and 1979, as recorded, respectively, by whom?

"Wild World" currently is climbing the Top 40 in a version by Mr. Big. Who last hit the Top 40 with this tune?

What song from Mariah Carey's "Music Box" album was a No. 1 hit for Harry Nilsson in 1972?

Who wrote the songs featured, respectively, in questions 2 and 3, and how did they fare on the charts?

What British singer experienced a career revival with a 1980 remake of "Kiss," originally a No. 1 hit for Prince in 1967?

Elvis Presley hit No. 2 in 1962 with a ballad. What was the song? What group remade the tune with a reggae beat and sent it atop the charts for more than a month last summer?

What soulful No. 8 hit in 1970 by the Five Stairsteps was pumped up for Top 40 listeners by current dance club heartthrob Dino?

Who hit No. 12 in 1985 with a campy remake of Louis Prima's "Just A Gigolo/I Ain't Got Nobody"?

What song written by Little Richard did Pat Boone manage to get more chart mileage out of in 1956?

What song recorded by Nat "King" Cole, among others, made the Top 40 recently, as sung by Celine Dion and Clive Griffin? (Extra credit: In what 1993 movie was it featured, and in what 1988 movie starring Dennis Quaid and Jessica Lange was Cole's version featured?)

ANSWERS: 1. The Four Seasons (No. 22); Cheap Trick (No.

35) 2. English reggae singer Maxi Priest hit No. 25 in 1989 with it 3. "Without You" 4. Cat Stevens hit No. 11 in 1971; Pete Ham of Badfinger, which didn't hit the Top 40 with the original version 5. Tom Jones was featured on the No. 31 remake by Art Of Noise that was a dance-club smash 6. "Can't Help Falling In Love" by UB40 7. "O-o-h Child" 8. David Lee Roth 9. "Tutti Frutti" was No. 12 for Boone, No. 17 for Little Richard 10. "When I Fall In Love" (Extra credit: "Sleepless in Seattle" and "Everybody's An American.")

Horoscope

Sunday, Dec. 5
The moon in Virgo is fine for pre-holiday spring cleaning. Have everything where you can find it, and you'll save yourself time and grief. Health is No. 1. Are you feeling like a million dollars—or a million years old? Minor changes in your diet can revive your pep. Parents now have a better chance to teach their children to pick up after themselves!

ARIES (March 21-April 19). The brash approach is better left behind if you want to impress others. Hearing things in detail helps you get to the heart of the matter. Follow through on a plan to complete your education. Make health issues a priority.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20). Break through communication barriers with partners. You may be better off preparing your own meals rather than eating out. Life may put your problem-solving ability to the test. Give clear instructions.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21). A frustrating period of dissatisfaction about job conditions is finally drawing to a close. Your partner responds favorably when he or she is respected. You succeed in collaborative ventures such as working on a screenplay.

CANCER (June 22-July 22). You have more energy for exercising and self-improvement, but watch out for rich foods! Sharing an apartment can be a beneficial financial move. Emotional dissatisfaction may lead you to revamp your lifestyle.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22). Establishing a greater sense of order in your surroundings adds to your sense of self-confidence. You can now successfully handle health-care issues. It may be to your advantage to repair old clothes.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (Dec. 5). Your sparkling personality is your greatest asset, especially now, when you're feeling social. It's time for major love affairs and emotional fireworks. Success comes from bucking down and getting the job done next year. Invest in your home and property in February, April and September. New businesses get off to a great start. June shows rewards through self-reliance. August brings an emotional surprise.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). Expect an eventful home life. You may either move into larger quarters or add on to your present house. Begin creating a special library of your most useful books. Cultivating humor rather than worrying brings peace.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22). Although life may not seem glamorous today, it gives you a chance to put your talents to use as never before. Do something with your flair for artistic design. Others may once again expect you to come up to their high standards.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21). Success comes when you take full responsibility for your life and happiness. Love is favored with Taurus or Virgo. Friends can give you an objective picture of yourself—if you ask. Part-time work should be easier to find.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). You have high energy and sex appeal throughout today and the rest of the week. Extra preparation now makes Monday a breeze at work. Reassure your parents that you are on the right track in life.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). Fulfill your desire to educate people about important health issues. It's worth filling out an application for a civil-service position. Believing in yourself helps you overcome criticism from others. Make solid plans.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). When you're willing to do what you love for free, you'll soon be paid for it. Make a commitment to contact an expert on how to turn your credit around. Your willingness to handle responsibility impresses others favorably.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20). Pressing for results may work against you, so flow with the natural course of events. Extra rest balances your emotions and restores your positive attitude toward life. If you're unhappy, overeating could become a problem.

Arts League Players present 'Lenny' at SIUE

The Arts League Players of Edwardsville is presenting Julian Barry's, "Lenny," this weekend and next. The play kicked off this past Friday and Saturday and will be presented again next Friday and Saturday, Dec. 10 and 11, at 8 p.m. in the Metcalf Theater on the campus of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

"Lenny" is based on the life of Lenny Bruce, the pioneering comedian of the '50s and '60s who struggles against censorship—and against his own demons—ended in his tragic death at the age of 40. Much of the play is drawn from Bruce's own standup routines, covering subjects from sex to politics to the Lone Ranger, always with a sharp eye on the hypocrisies of American society. This production will feature cabaret-style seating and a uniquely multi-dimensional staging.

Tickets for the play are available at the door for $6; students and seniors, $4.50. Advance tickets at the same price are available at Slagger Inn Again, 104 E. Vandalia, Edwardsville.

If purchasing tickets at the door, advance reservations are recommended at 656-1181. The theater is wheelchair accessible.

arrangements may be made by also calling the reservation telephone number.

The Arts League Players' 1992-94 season is made possible in part by grants from the Madison Arts Council and the Illinois Arts Council, a state agency.
